The war in israel and the catastrophe of cultural monuments

by A.Angelotti

Abstract: The history of Israel known for many years as well as the attempts to save the life of monuments and archaeological sites in an area that has always suffered from war tensions is always an evolving topic of continuous analysis. This paper aims to discuss what the international and regional rules require for the protection of monuments in the area which is still an open hotbed.

Key words: war in Israel, protection of cultural monuments, international protection of monuments, Israel war.
